

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Adjunct Instructor – Communication Sciences and Disorders

Mount Vernon Nazarene University exists to shape lives through educating the whole person and cultivating Christ-likeness for lifelong learning and service.

Mount Vernon Nazarene University (MVNU) is an intentionally Christian teaching university for traditional age students, graduate students, and working adults who seek opportunities to learn and grow in an academic community of faith. The University provides the context for a transformational experience through excellent academics, service opportunities, caring relationships, and a nurturing spiritual and social environment. Faculty, staff, and students are challenged to achieve their highest potential, to become increasingly Christ-like and to make a difference in their world through lifelong service.

The University seeks a part-time Adjunct Instructor for its Communication Sciences and Disorders (CSD) program on the Mount Vernon main campus.

Responsibilities for this position include:

- Teach assigned courses as contracted in the undergraduate CSD program
- Deliver high quality instructions for assigned course as specified by the master syllabus and as directed by the CSD Program Director
- Challenge, engage, serve, and communicate with students to encourage their participation and learning while maintaining mutual value and respect
- Post grades in a timely manner
- Identify and refer at-risk students to CSD Program Director

Expectations for the successful candidate:

- Evangelical Christian confession of faith and experience (Statement of Faith required at application)
- Candidate must have obtained at least a conferred Master's Degree from an accredited U.S. college/university or international equivalent in Speech-Language Pathology or a related field; additional requirements driven by state licensing or accreditation considerations may apply
- ASHA Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech Language Pathology
- Experience teaching at the college level
- Expertise in interpersonal and oral presentation/written communication skills
- Engaging classroom style and appreciation of successful instructional approaches for a range of academic abilities

Interested candidates should send a curriculum vita, names of three references with contact information, a one to two-page statement of educational philosophy, a one to two-page statement of faith, and copies of university transcripts electronically to:

Dr. Judy Gregg
Dean, School of Nursing and Health Sciences
Mount Vernon Nazarene University
800 Martinsburg Road
Mount Vernon, Ohio 43050
Judy.Gregg@mvnu.edu

A background check will be performed prior to appointment. Mount Vernon Nazarene University does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, age, disability, or military service in administering its employment policies and practices. As a religious educational institution under the auspices of the Church of the Nazarene, the University is permitted by law to consider religious beliefs/practices in making employment decisions and does so to achieve its mission. The University requires as a condition of employment that all employees subscribe to standards of the Church of the Nazarene and conduct their lives in accordance therewith.