

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
Exercise Science Adjunct

Mount Vernon Nazarene University exists to shape lives through educating the whole person and cultivating Christ-likeness for lifelong learning and service.

Mount Vernon Nazarene University (MVNU) is an intentionally Christian teaching university for traditional-age students, graduate students, and working adults who seek opportunities to learn and grow in an academic community of faith. The University provides the context for a transformational experience through excellent academics, service opportunities, caring relationships, and a nurturing spiritual and social environment. Faculty, staff, and students are challenged to achieve their highest potential, to become increasingly Christ-like and to make a difference in their world through lifelong service.

Mount Vernon Nazarene University is seeking an adjunct faculty member in the Exercise Science Program. Compensation is competitive among the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities.

Responsibilities for this position may include:

- Teaching courses in the traditional Exercise Science program
- Serving as the Exercise Science Program Coordinator
- Supporting departmental efforts for continued improvement of programs

Qualifications for the successful candidate:

- Evangelical Christian confession of faith and experience required: member of the Church of the Nazarene preferred
- Master's in Exercise Science or related field required; terminal degree in an appropriate field preferred
- Commitment to quality classroom instruction; evidence of successful previous teaching experience in higher education preferred
- Strong individual and group communication skills
- Desire to help students succeed in the university setting
- Proven ability to work well with others

Interested candidates should send a curriculum vita, names of three references with contact information, a one to two-page statement of educational philosophy, a one to two-page statement of faith, and copies of university transcripts electronically to:

A background check will be performed before the appointment. Mount Vernon Nazarene University is committed to fostering a non-discriminatory campus environment in which community members can learn and work. MVNU prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, sex, age, color, national origin, disability, marital status, or military service in the operation of all University programs, activities, and services. As a faith-based institution, the University is exempted from certain laws and regulations concerning discrimination. The University maintains the right, with regard to its lifestyle covenant, employment, and other matters, to uphold and apply its Christian beliefs related to, among other issues, marriage, sex (gender), gender identity, sexual orientation, and sexual activity to the fullest extent permitted by law. Thus, MVNU attempts to make all policies and decisions within the doctrinal and moral convictions of the Church of the Nazarene (e.g., Articles of Faith, Covenant of Christian Conduct including the Statement on Human Sexuality and Marriage, Covenant of Christian Character, and the Statement on Discrimination, 915).
