

Earn your Master of Divinity from Nazarene Theological Seminary and Mount Vernon Nazarene University

Through a unique partnership between MVNU and NTS, you can now earn your Master of Divinity without moving to Kansas City. This program offers a combination of four convenient ways to take classes to earn your degree.

- Take classes in the Master of Ministry program at MVNU
- Attend NTS modular classes at MVNU (August/October/January/March)
- Earn a portion of your credits through online instruction
- Take video-conferenced classes from NTS on the MVNU campus

How to earn your Master of Divinity through MVNU's Master of Ministry program:

1. Enroll as a graduate student at Mount Vernon Nazarene University and Nazarene Theological Seminary. Requirements for admission include an accredited bachelor's degree with at least a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale.
2. Take classes at both MVNU and NTS to earn a Master of Divinity. Classes may be taken simultaneously provided pre-requisite courses are met.

Graduation Requirements

A total of 76 credit hours must be completed to earn a Master of Divinity. At least 46 of those hours must be taken through NTS to graduate with a degree from this institution.

1. Up to 30 credit hours in the Master of Ministry program at MVNU.
2. At least 24 hours of residential credit through NTS can be taken on the MVNU campus.
3. Additional credit hours can be earned by taking online courses through NTS to complete the program.
