

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Head Men's Soccer Coach

Mount Vernon Nazarene University exists to shape lives through educating the whole person and cultivating Christ-likeness for lifelong learning and service.

Mount Vernon Nazarene University (MVNU) is an intentionally Christian teaching university for traditional age students, graduate students, and working adults who seek opportunities to learn and grow in an academic community of faith. The University provides the context for a transformational experience through excellent academics, service opportunities, caring relationships, and a nurturing spiritual and social environment. Faculty, staff, and students are challenged to achieve their highest potential, to become increasingly Christ-like and to make a difference in their world through lifelong service.

The University seeks a full-time, 10-month, qualified Head Men's Soccer Coach. The position reports to the Director of Athletics and the position is under the Division of Student Life on the Mount Vernon main campus. The university is a member of the Crossroads League in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). MVNU is also a distinctively evangelical Christian university and the candidate must be in agreement with our mission and demonstrate a personal, evangelical faith. Salary will be commensurate with education and experience. A full complement of benefits are provided to full-time employees, including a health care plan, retirement contributions and tuition assistance, each subject to associated waiting periods.

Responsibilities for this position include:

- Planning, supervising, and directing all phases of the Men's Intercollegiate Soccer Program:
 - Operating the men's soccer program under the NAIA guidelines
 - Operating the men's soccer program under the Crossroads league conference guidelines
 - Organizing and conducting team practice sessions and games
 - Recruiting prospective mission fit student-athletes
 - Managing the soccer budget each year
 - Scheduling games with approval from AD
 - Supervising assistant coaches
 - Spiritual mentoring
 - Assisting in eligibility certification of team
 - Managing all other aspects of an intercollegiate athletic program
 - Coordinating summer camp(s), if desired
 - Organize and operate program fundraising
 - Attending all athletic department meetings.
 - Additional assignments as deemed appropriate by the Athletic Director. These could include classroom instruction depending on capacity of the candidate and needs of the university as well as assistance with game management.
 - Support other athletic events taking place on campus
 - Other duties assigned by the Athletic Director

The above statements describe the general nature and level of work to be performed by an individual assigned to this position. This is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all responsibilities and duties required of the position.

Expectations for the successful candidate:

- Evidence of active church involvement and an evangelical Statement of Faith;
- A master's degree is required;
- Previous coaching experience at the collegiate level preferred;

- Experience in effective supervision of student-athletes;
- Ability to communicate and work effectively and creatively with students, parents, administrators, faculty and staff;
- Detail oriented;
- Knowledge of coaching philosophies and implementation within a team;
- Experience in Microsoft Office is very beneficial, but not required.

To be considered for this position, please email a resume to MVNU.Recruiting@mvnu.edu and complete the application, found at: <http://mvnu.edu/jobs>. Applicants submitting materials via email should attach either a Microsoft Word or .PDF File. Alternatively, materials can be faxed to (740-397-1005), or mailed to:
