Phil Hurlbert	Helping Teens Navigate Anxiety and Depression	Anxiety and depression are affecting more teenagers than ever, and many leaders feel unsure of how to respond. This workshop will help youth workers, volunteers, and adult leaders better understand what teens may be experiencing and how to respond with compassion, wisdom, and hope. Drawing from practical ministry experience and work, this session will offer tools for recognizing signs of struggle, creating safe conversations, responding in helpful ways, and knowing when additional support is needed. The goal is to help leaders care well for hurting students while pointing them toward hope in Christ.	Campus Center 244	Adult Leaders
Christina McCully	Called	Have you ever thought that maybe God was calling you into ministry? This workshop will empower you to navigate the questions and the uncertainty you may be feeling and encourage you to say yes to the call of God!	Campus Center 243	Students
Bennett Briles	Don't Hit the Skip Button	Some Scripture passages are challenging to teach because they are enigmatic, or uncomfortable. Some important topics are difficult to teach because they are awkward or controversial. However, we have a rewarding opportunity to foster confidence in our young people who are immersed in a world full of confused messaging and doubt. We will share with each other illustrative examples and discover how people learn best when they are curious.	JSB 108	Adult Leaders
Vince LoPrinzi	Preaching to the Disengaged	It is no secret that we live in a world shaped by TikTok, reels, and instant content, making sustained engagement during a sermon harder than ever before.  Whether you're a seasoned senior pastor, youth leader or a student stepping up to speak for the first time, this workshop will give you practical, easy to implement tips and strategies to increase engagement in your next sermon without watering down your message! Teresa Bowden	6/7 Party	If you're a 2026 graduate, this night is all about celebrating YOU. If you're a member of the class of 2027, you're stepping into your senior year, a season full of excitement, anticipation, and celebration—the finish line is in sight, and your best year is still ahead. But this moment is more than just a milestone—it's a transition into a new stage of adulthood. And in that transition, your faith isn't meant to stay where it is. It's meant to grow, deepen, and be lived out. Discipleship is about following Jesus daily, becoming more like Him, and helping others do the same. So what does it look like to take ownership of your faith? How do you continue growing when life changes? And how can you intentionally live as a disciple who influences your friends, family, church, and community? Youth leaders are also invited to be part of this experience—coming alongside these new adults to help guide, encourage, and walk with them through this transition. Our heart is to build lasting connections so that students continue to feel known, supported, and rooted in the church even beyond youth group. We'll talk about all of that—and yes, we're still going to celebrate while we do it (and yes, there will be food)!	JSB 106	Classes of 26 and 27, and their leaders
Molly Riggs	More Than A Game	What does it actually look like to follow God when the game gets intense? This session will help you manage emotions, stay grounded in your faith, and play with purpose beyond the scoreboard.	Campus Center 300	Students
